Mayor and Aldermen.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—As we will be called upon in a few weeks to elect a Board of Mayor and Aldermen, it is quite time we were considering the question alone, in view of the best interests of the city.

The present board have accomplished much for the public's good, some of us may think we could have done more, but they are certainly entitled to the commendation of "well done good and faithful servants." They have lessened expenses by reducing their own salaries, have established the credit of the city on a firm basis; two years ago we saw the city bonds sell at seventy-five cents on the dollar at public auction, now they are current at par, and there was a shortage of debt of twelve to fourteen hundred dollars, and warrants selling at eighty to ninety cents. This debt has been paid, and warrants are paid promptly. They have settled the water question, fully protecting our interests, have made many substantial improvements on the streets, have commenced a system of sewerage and now have on hand funding money in the hands of the city, and all this has been done without additional tax. Remarkable good order and quietness prevailed during their administration.

Believing that it is all important that the wise policy of the board shall be continued, and that any material change in the board is not only undesirable, but that it would be injurious to our best interests, we say elect the Board of Mayor and Aldermen solid, and to every one who we have heard speak on the subject. What say you and all the people?

Some of this board may not desire it, but if the people assert their rights and elect them, they will serve.

MENNY ALLEN'S DEATH.

The sad intelligence that reached this city last Sunday morning about half-past ten o'clock of the very sudden and entirely unexpected death of Mr. W. H. Allen, was calculated to shock even the sensibilities of his most casual acquaintances and did indeed cause a pang of inexpressible pain and sorrow to wring the hearts of his intimate friends and associates. Those who saw him only the afternoon previously apparently in full glow of health and manly strength, were loth to believe the sorrowful news, and until a second messenger arrived from his home in the country with a confirmation of the report were they forced to the realization of the sad truth. For several weeks previously, at long intervals, he had had slight chills, but thought nothing of them, and he had called to the attention of his family and friends.

He was at his post of duty all day

Saturday at Capt. Crumman's grocery, until late in the afternoon when he complained of a slight chill and retired to his room.

About dusk his room arrived from the country for him, and he rode to the residence of his mother, Mrs.

Bailey Allen, who lives in the neighborhood of the city, a distance of about seven miles from town.

The evening was severely cold and damp, and he is supposed to have become thoroughly chilled by his long ride. However, upon arriving home he did not complain of being cold or sick, and after eat-

Hymnical.

The people of this community have for some time anxiously looked and listened for the day to be announced when the rites of matrimony would be solemnized between

Mr. T. W. Winn, of Adams station, Tenn., and Miss Katie Crouch, of Sango, Tenn., and on Wednesday, the 23d inst., at 6 o'clock, P. M., before a large number of friends and relations, who had congregated at Bethel church, this pleasant event took place. Rev. H. L. Barney performed the ceremony in his usual eloquent style. The attendants were Mr. Ed. Bates and Miss Annie Crouch, Dr. B. F. Moody,

Jr., and Miss Alice Winn, Mr. S.

T. Halliburton and Miss Fannie V.

Hunter, Mr. Ben. Mobley and Miss

Ella Winn.

After the many congratulations which were bestowed upon the happy pair, the larger portion of the congregation accompanied the newly married couple to the residence of W. H. Crouch, Jr., where was spread a bountiful repast of many luscious edibles which we will not attempt to describe, but suffice it to say that all who were there greatly enjoyed.

May the new beginning in a matrimonial life endeavor each to work for the happiness of the other, and may they be useful members of the community in which they live, and may no cloud of sorrow ever spread its gloomy wings over their domicile is sincerely the wish of their FRIEND.

Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving day was generally observed by our citizens. The business houses were closed for the better part of the day, and there were very few people on the streets.

There were union services held at the First Presbyterian church in which most of the congregations of the city joined. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Jno. R.

Goodpasture, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and was very appropriate of the day. Services were also held at the Episcopal church, the pastor, the Rev. P. A.

Fitts officiating. Both services were largely attended.

THE ACADEMY SOCIABLE.

Prof. John S. Collins gave a very happy and enjoyable soiree to the young ladies and teachers of the Female Academy on last Thursday night. Thanksgiving eve, to which quite a number of the friends and patrons of the school, and the acquaintances of the young ladies were invited. The music, promenading and conversations were greatly enjoyed by the beautiful semblance of lovely young ladies, and happiness and pleasure was written in beaming smiles upon the countenances of all present. Prof.

and Mrs. Collins are delightful and charming hosts.

E. B. Ely's Christmas Goods.

Now displayed in the large and attractive confectionery establishment of Mr. E. B. Ely, are a whole bazaar within themselves, and it is well worth your time just to visit the store to see the display. You can find anything you want for the Christmas holidays. His stock of fancy goods, toys, and confectionery is perhaps the most complete ever brought to this city. Read his advertisement and call in and look at his attractions.
